at the Day

900th anniversary of the death of Rievaulx. Aelred of Rievaulx in 1134, and in 1147. He gained a wise pastor and father and left us some of the spiritual writing which shows his understanding of friendship and prayer.

Methodist chapel and site, this day gives us an opportunity to hear about Aelred, his life and work, and read from his writing and from his help and support on our own faith journey.

and I, and I hope, a third,

to disturb us.

and, open your heart and let your hands and feet and eyes and ears whatsoever you have receive and accept gracefully the gift of friendship and leisure.'
